MEDICAL FACILITIES:

Are readily available (the Athletic Training Room). Also, the Lima Memorial Hospital or the Bluffton Hospital are each only 20 minutes from campus. Each camper is covered by accident insurance.

FOOD:

It's excellent! We feel it absolutely cannot be surpassed in quality or quantity by any other basketball camp. Every camper gets as much as he wants. Meals will be served in the Student Union (McIntosh Center).

On the first day the initial meal will be served at 5:30 p.m. and the last meal served will be the last day of camp at noon.

ONLINE REGISTRATION:

As a staff we are encouraging online registration more than ever!!!
To register online, go to: www.onu.edu/boysbballcamp

REGISTRATION:

Held between 3 and 4:30 p.m. on opening day at the ONU Sports Center on the campus of Ohio Northern.

CHECK OUT AND DEPARTURE:

Room inspection: key turn-in at 4 p.m. (on Wednesday). Parents may pick up their youngsters at the residence hall at 4 p.m.

EQUIPMENT NEEDED:

A packing list will be sent to all campers upon registering for camp.

ROOMMATE ASSIGNMENTS:

There must be a mutual consent when requesting a roommate. There is a limit of 2 persons per room. We will be back in 2 person per room dorms this year so this rule will be applied again.

CAMPUS FACILITIES:

ADMINISTRATIVE STAFF

John Rhodes - Camp Director

John Rhodes is in his first season as the head men's basketball coach and begins his 2nd summer on staff of the Ohio Northern Basketball Camps. Coach Rhodes comes to Ohio Northern after a 1-year stint as an assistant coach at NCAA Division I Northeastern University and brings 13 years of coaching experience and eight years of experience playing professional basketball to the Polar Bears. Prior to his time at NU, Rhodes spent nine seasons as an assistant at his alma mater, Ohio University, from 1999-2004 before being named the associate head coach prior to the 2004-05 season. While at Ohio, Rhodes helped lead the Bobcats to winning seasons in seven of his nine years, including four seasons in a row from 2004-08. In his nine seasons, Rhodes helped produce seven All-Conference forwards, including three-time first-team All-MAC selection Brandon Hunter, who was a second-round draft choice of the Boston Celtics in the 2003 NBA Draft. Rhodes was a four-year letterman for Ohio from 1984-88. A star center for the Bobcats, Rhodes served as team captain was named second-team All-MAC his senior year. In the Ohio career record books, he ranks third in field goal percentage (.567), fourth in blocked shots (121), and 10th in rebounds (744). A Milwaukee native, Rhodes graduated from Ohio in 1988 with a bachelor's degree in Journalism/Public Relations. He and his wife Jackie have two children, Alexis (13) and Kristopher (10).

Chad Bostelman - Assistant Coach

Former Ohio Northern basketball standout Chad Bostelman is in his second season at his alma mater, serving as head men's golf coach and assistant men's basketball coach. Bostelman, a 2005 graduate, returns to the Polar Bears after one year as an assistant coach at Ohio Wesleyan and two seasons as a graduate assistant at Heidelberg. Bostelman graduated from Ohio Northern with a B.A. degree in education and social studies in 2005. He then earned a Master's degree in education from Heidelberg in 2007. He will also be a lecturer in ONU's Human Performance and Sport Sciences department. Bostelman was a four-year letterman for the Polar Bears from 2001-04 and was a four-time All-Ohio Athletic Conference honoree. He currently ranks 18th all-time on Ohio Northern's scoring list with 1,187 points. A Napoleon, Ohio, native, he also ranks seventh at ONU with 226 three-pointers, is eighth with a .832 free throw shooting percentage, is 14th with 258 steals and is 16th with 117 assists.

Blake Kindle - Camp Administrator

Blake Kindle enters his 12th summer as a member of the camp staff at Ohio Northern University. Coach Kindle was a very successful High School coach from 1990-1998 before joining the Ohio Northern Staff in 2000. He is the former assistant coach at Bluffton University. Coach Kindle is one of the best teachers of the game in the area and will be running many teaching lectures during the camp. His enthusiasm and ability to teach the game to kids make him a big asset to our camp staff.

For 5 days, Coach Rhodes and his staff will teach a variety of basic offensive and defensive basketball fundamentals.

Six Things Are Guaranteed:

A DAY IN CAMP:

Wakeup call is at 7:20 a.m. and lights are out at 11 p.m.

During "free time," a camper may relax by resting, reading, writing home, using the student union (McIntosh Center) facilities, in addition to the use of the beautiful swimming pool in the new ONU Sports Center.

Our daily schedule has some flexibility...as we are primarily interested in what is best for each individual. However, below is a typical daily schedule.

7:20 a.m.	Rise and shine	2 p.m.	Warm-up and station work
7:40 a.m.	BREAKFAST	2:30 p.m.	Lecture and drill session
8:15 a.m.	Room check	4 p.m.	League games/free time
8:30 a.m.	Gym open	5 p.m.	DINNER
9 a.m.	Lecture and drill session	7:15 p.m.	League games
11 a.m.	League games	8:15 p.m.	League games
12:20 p.m.	LUNCH	9:15 p.m.	Free time
12:45 p.m.	Rest period	11 p.m.	Lights out!

CHECK-IN:
3-4:30 p.m. (Sunday)
CHECK-OUT:
4 p.m. (Wednesday)

“Our goal is to teach each youngster about the game of basketball while providing a safe environment to have fun and compete with fellow campers.”
