Documents Needed:

All students interested in applying for the Shuhaibar Scholarship must submit the following materials to their college dean no later than March 2, 2018.

1. The completed Shuhaibar Nomination form.
2. A current resume.
3. A one page personal statement addressing why you should be considered for the scholarship.
 - a. How are you involved at ONU? Student groups/Participating in activities/academics
 - b. How have you demonstrated leadership roles as a student at ONU
 - c. How would this scholarship personally benefit you?
4. Two letters of recommendation from ONU faculty and staff.

Please note:

- ONU students who are funded by their government or who have tuition remission may apply to receive an honorable mention. An honorable mention is a wonderful addition to a resume.
 - The Dean's offices from each of the four colleges will nominate up to two candidates from their college, based on the applications received, to be recommended for the scholarship.
 - Recipients of the Shuhaibar International Scholarship will be announced on April 10, 2018 at the Multicultural Honors Day Program held at 4pm in the Activities Room.
