Welcome to the 20th anniversary season at the Freed Center for the Performing Arts. It is hard to believe that we have had the opportunity to provide engaging cultural events for our community for 20 years. It has been our privilege to be able to present the highest quality arts entertainment to you, and we look forward to continuing this tradition for many years to come. Now is your chance to make a difference in our community by becoming an Angel for the Arts or underwriter for the Freed Center. By giving back to the arts, you play an integral role in bringing top-notch performances to our stage.

This season, we bring our unique mix of education, children’s, family and headline events. Look out for comedy, music, dance and even a bit of Shakespeare, while we still include favorites such as the Holiday Spectacular and the Ninth International Play Festival.

This 20th season consists of many exciting performances, which will sell out quickly. So, get your subscription early, get your favorite seats and help us celebrate our 20th anniversary at the Freed Center for the Performing Arts.

Jack Hanna’s Into the Wild Live
Saturday, Sept. 11, 2010, at 1 p.m. and 5 p.m.
Tickets go on sale Aug. 1, 2010.

We are thrilled to welcome Jack Hanna to our stage for the first time. This world-famous animal educator has appeared on countless television talk shows and newscasts. He will bring along many of his furry (and sometimes not so furry) friends. This is sure to be an educational and exciting experience that will be enjoyed by the whole family.

$20 adults; $10 children

Lee Ann Womack
Saturday, Sept. 25, 2010, at 8 p.m.
Tickets go on sale Aug. 1, 2010.

Somewhere between the blush of a new love and the bruises of a broken heart lies real life and real country music. Lee Ann Womack is a lifelong student of this reality, with hits including “I Hope You Dance,” “If These Walls Could Talk,” and “The Fool.” This will prove to be an exquisite performance with Lee Ann’s sheer artistry and straight-from-the-heart vocals—whether powerful, vulnerable, achingly sad or joyful.

Ohio Northern University

Ohio Northern University is a distinguished private University that distinctively blends nationally ranked academic programs in the liberal arts and professional programs for its students in five colleges: Arts & Sciences, Business Administration, Engineering, Pharmacy and Law. The University empowers talented, motivated students to Discover [their] True North, to turn their passions into pathways and to make lifelong connections that ensure successful futures.

Ohio Northern was once again named one of the top 200 programs in the nation for creative students in Creative Colleges: A Guide for Student Actors, Artists, Dancers, Musicians and Writers (2010).

The Freed Center for the Performing Arts is a state-of-the-art facility that houses the department of communication and theatre arts as well as two theatres and an art gallery. The Biggs Theatre is a 551-seat theatre with a stage that has welcomed legends such as Carol Channing, Petula Clark, Debbie Reynolds, Van Cliburn, Jack Jones, Arturo Sandoval, Whose Live Anyway?, Peter Noone, and Mike Super. The Stambaugh Studio Theatre is a 136-seat flexible-seating black box for smaller, more intimate performances.

The Freed Center is proud to offer an outstanding children’s series as well as many educational opportunities throughout the season. We have brought many children’s books to our stage, such as Magic Tree House: The Musical, Strega Nona, The Velveteen Rabbit, The Adventures of Harold and the Purple Crayon, and Pinkalicious, just to name a few. Many of our performances offer free pre- or post-show discussions and workshops.
Ticket Policy
If you do not arrive by the printed performance time, we reserve the right to resell your ticket. However, if you would be kind enough to call us and let us know that you are going to be late, we will be kind enough to save your seat.

Ticket Information
Groups of 20 or more are eligible to receive discounts to many of the events listed. Tickets may be ordered with a MasterCard, VISA, Discover or American Express. There is a senior discount for those 62 and older. There is also a $2 handling charge on all regular ticket orders. (Subscription orders are mailed free of charge.)

Call the box office at 419-772-1900. The box office is open Monday through Friday from noon to 5 p.m. and Saturday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

Ticket Exchange Policy
We are happy to offer ticket exchange privileges to our patrons (subject to the following):

Tickets may be exchanged for any performance up to 48 hours prior to the performance for which you hold tickets.

You may exchange tickets for another performance of the same show or for another show, subject to availability. However, the box office cannot reimburse you if the exchange is for a ticket to a lower-priced event. You may purchase additional tickets as part of the exchange, subject to availability. There is a $1 per-ticket exchange fee. Tickets being exchanged must be returned to the box office before we can give you your new tickets.

Lost Tickets Policy
We are happy to replace lost or misplaced tickets at $1 per ticket. Please call the box office at 419-772-1900.

NOTE: Angel for the Arts members and subscribers do not pay the exchange or lost ticket fees.

Unable to go to the show at the last minute?
Donate your ticket(s) back to the Freed Center (up until show time), and we will give you a tax credit certificate.

Latecomer Policy
The house manager may seat latecomers only during times that minimize disruption of a performance. In some cases there will be no seating until intermission. The management accepts no responsibility for inconvenience to latecomers and can make no adjustment because of it.
Freed Center for the Performing Arts 2010–2011 Season

always something for everyone

WONB Radio—
The broadcast voice of ONU

WONB 94.9 is the primary source for news, sports, weather, public affairs and entertainment in West Central Ohio. Listen to the oldies—music from the ‘70s through the ‘90s—during the day and Top 40 hits at night.

Tune into WONB 94.9 every Wednesday morning at 8:15 a.m. to hear about the coming week’s events at the Freed Center.

Directions
The Freed Center is located on the campus of Ohio Northern in Ada, Ohio, on state Route 235, halfway between state Routes 30 and 309. Ada is 75 miles north of Dayton, 75 miles south of Toledo and 85 miles northwest of Columbus.

Parking
There are three paved parking lots within a short walk. Passengers may also be dropped off under the canopy. Parking is free for all Freed Center events.

Services for Patrons with Disabilities and Special Needs
The Freed Center is wheelchair-accessible. Special wheelchair areas and seats are located on two levels in the Biggs Theatre. Please make any special needs known when purchasing tickets. Special parking, cutdown curbs and restroom access make the center convenient for everyone.

Cameras, Recording Devices and Cellular Phones
The use of recording equipment or photography of any form during a performance is strictly prohibited by law. Cellular phone usage, including texting, is strictly prohibited during all performances.

Fire Notice
The exit indicated by an exit sign nearest your seat is the shortest route to the outside. In the event of a fire or other emergency, please walk, not run, to that exit.

Performance Policies
Cellular phones and beepers must be turned off during performances. Patrons who need to be contacted in an emergency may leave the number 419-772-1900 with their call services. Be sure to leave your name and seat number at the box office.

Most productions are appropriate for children ages 12 and up. Some shows are restricted. Please check the season listing for guidance. Please, no babies in arms. If a child is old enough to attend the theatre, they must have a ticket.
This year, the Freed Center for the Performing Arts has given its subscriptions a new face-lift for our 20th season. We are proud to offer four different types of packages that will save you more than ever before. In each package, you can still choose the shows that you would like to come and see; you are sure to save money with any choice that you make. We have enjoyed serving our community for the past 20 years and hope to see all of you at the Freed Center this year! If you have any questions or concerns, you may call the Box Office at 419-772-1900. We would be happy to assist you.
