ARTS AND CULTURE

The arts come alive at the Freed Center for the Performing Arts on ONU's campus. Every year, the Freed Center brings acts to campus, and showcases the talents of ONU students with music ensemble concerts, theatre productions and dance performances. Be sure to catch the ONU Holiday Spectacular – a beloved tradition for more than 25 years! Also on campus, two art galleries – the Elzay Gallery of Art on Gilbert Street and the Stambaugh Studio Theatre Gallery adjacent to the Freed Center – give local, regional and national artists the chance to showcase their work.

WELCOME TO CLEAR SKIES, OPEN SPACES AND FRESH IDEAS

Ohio Northern University is set in the rural village of Ada, Ohio. It's a small town, but we still do plenty of big things. And ONU is at the center of it all. Without the distractions of a big city, we hone in on exploring what excites us, solving what puzzles us and building strong relationships with our community.

EVENTS AND FESTIVALS

Ada embraces every season with fun for all ages. In September, the Harvest and Herb Festival draws people from throughout the region for a parade, homemade food, handcrafted items, fresh herbs and produce, music, and activities.

During the holidays, Ada is bedecked with lights and decorations. Live music events at Depot Park are often paired with chicken barbecues or ice cream socials. Nothing is more refreshing than summertime in a small town! The summer months feature the Farmers & Merchants Picnic in the War Memorial Park, the Made in Ada Wilson Football Festival, and the Lima Symphony Orchestra celebrates the Fourth of July with a free "Patriotic Pops" concert on the Ohio Northern University campus.

RECREATION

If you like to bike, jog or walk, check out the infamous Green Monster, an emerald paved trail that offers spectacular views of nature, the changing seasons, and American western art on the Remington Walk. You'll also find a great disc golf course on the campus.

For entertainment, the Ada Theatre runs the latest blockbuster films with ticket and popcorn prices that won't break your piggy bank. Bowling enthusiasts can knock down pins at Norada Lanes. And if you like to shop, there are boutique shops like the Gallery of the Arts, The Mercantile on Main, Ruthie's Boarding Room and Whatever Cards & Games, a hobby-based games retailer. You'll find several golf courses - Colonial Golfers Club, Hidden Creek Golf and Bluffton Golf Club - in the area. YMCA Camp Wilson in Bellefontaine offers a variety of equestrian activities and camps.

The ONU Bookstore offers all your favorite Polar Bear gear. The Inn's Gift Shop is the perfect choice when you need to buy something special and unique.

The War Memorial Park features a swimming pool, playground equipment, picnic shelters, ball fields and more.

Wilson Football factory is Ada's claim to fame. Every football used in every Super Bowl has been made here. Production is all done by hand. Every football is cut, sewn, steamed and laced by a local worker. Tours are available by appointment.

The village of Ada offers a number of service-oriented groups such as Ada Kiwanis Club, Ada Rotary Club and Ada Lions Club.
